

2026 Wimbledon Championships – Men's singles

Defending champion Jannik Sinner defeated Alexander Zverev in the final, 6–7(7–9), 7–6(7–2), 6–3, 6–4 to win the gentlemen's singles tennis title at the 2026 Wimbledon Championships. It was his second Wimbledon title and fifth major title overall. Zverev was the first man born in the 1990s to reach the final of all four majors, and the fifth man in the Open Era to finish runner-up at all four majors.

With his first-round victory, Novak Djokovic continued a 21-year-long streak of having never lost in the opening round of Wimbledon, and became the first player in the Open Era to win more than 80 opening-round matches at the majors. During the tournament, he surpassed Roger Federer's record of Wimbledon men's singles match wins, reaching 107. The quarterfinal match between Djokovic and Félix Auger-Aliassime was the longest quarterfinal in tournament history, at 5 hours and 15 minutes long. At 39 years, 49 days old, Djokovic was the second-oldest Wimbledon semifinalist in the Open Era, only behind Ken Rosewall in 1974 (aged 39 years, 243 days).

Arthur Fery was the second wildcard to reach the Wimbledon semifinals in the Open Era, after Goran Ivanišević in 2001, and the first British male wildcard to do so at any major in the Open Era. Aged 36 years, 71 days, Jan-Lennard Struff became the oldest first-time major quarterfinalist in the Open Era.
