The "W" That Won!

When it comes to trade confusing similarity.

In a recent case, the Supreme Court ruled that what matters most is the element that first catches the eye of the ordinary consumer. The ruling serves as a vital reminder for businesses that building brand identity around a distinctive visual element is powerful, but relying on descriptive add-ons to bypass existing trademarks is a risky strategy.

In the latest legal update The "W" That Won!, SRMO intellectual property law partner Eilyn E. Medina-Garcia and associate Gabriel B. Esguerra dissect the Supreme Court ruling involving the famous stylized "W" mark.

Navigating VAT Refund Timelines: Key Clarifications from the Supreme Court

For businesses dealing with unutilized input VAT in the Philippines, timing is everything. Missing a statutory deadline can completely derail an otherwise valid claim.

The Supreme Court recently provided a valuable, up-to-date roadmap that clarifies the exact reckoning points for VAT refund processing periods. The Supreme Court harmonized the evolution of our tax timeline rule set—tracking changes through the TRAIN Law, the Ease of Paying Taxes (EOPT) Act, and the recent CREATE MORE Act.

SRMO Celebrates Atty

Siguion Reyna, Montecillo & Ongsiako, P.A. (SRMO), led by Atty. Alma D. Fernandez-Mallonga, S.M., has been named one of the Top 30 Litigators for 2026.

ALB's annual recognition of the Top 30 Litigators is a testament to the firm's commitment to excellence through landmark cases and complex mandates in the legal profession.

A 40-Year Legacy of Excellence

With four decades of dedicated service, SRMO has established itself as a vital leader within the Philippines' oldest operating law office, she has successfully steered everything from high-profile white-collar criminal defense to critical public interest advocacy.

Atty. Mallonga was involved in proceedings held in Sacramento, California, to assist an American who successfully resisted extradition in a widely publicized case, and has represented a prominent Philippine hospital and appeared on its behalf in a deposition of a medical expert from Johns Hopkins Hospital in a multi-million dollar medical malpractice suit.

Atty. Mallonga's formidable legal mind has been evident since her academic years. She earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology, summa cum laude, from the University of the Philippines in

Atty. Mallonga's formidable legal mind has been evident since her academic years. She earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology, summa cum laude, from the University of the Philippines in 1981, and obtained her Bachelor of Laws degree, cum laude, from the UP College of Law in 1986, graduating as Valedictorian of her class.

The Philosophy: "Candor Over Comfort."

In her featured interview with Asian Legal Business, Atty. Mallonga shared the core philosophy that drives her courtroom and boardroom strategy: "Candor Over Comfort."

In a world of increasingly complex legal mandates, she emphasizes that winning strategies cannot be built on wishful thinking. For Atty. Mallonga, the true hallmark of a great litigator is the ability to manage client expectations with honesty, navigate through a complex business lens, and bring a level of professional stamina.

Her inclusion in this year's list while the litigation landscape and advocacy remain the norm.

Congratulations on this achievement!
