I enjoy the weekly curated articles and the game where you decorate a room in an art gallery. However, today, some of the previous rooms I decorated are missing art, and others have art but the furnishings are gone. Please fix. UPDATE: I left the app and went into another app entirely, but the Art Gallery music continued to play. I decided this app is too buggy and uninstalled.

Lots of good information and data, but can be cumbersome to navigate. My biggest problems are that 1. There is no way to edit or delete a gallery that we make under our profile. 2. No way to suggest museums and art pieces that are missing from the app's database. For example, my city's art museum is not searchable in the app. Also, no support.

Needs work. I love that you can browse museum collections from the museum itself in street view. Unfortunately, if you try to move, it takes you to a random location outside the museum. Another gripe is when you're viewing an item, you can't swipe to the next item. You have to back out to the full list, which is strange and annoying. With some updates, it will be awesome.

What's new

- We've consolidated our navigation bar into three items - 'Inspire', 'Play' and 'Explore'.
- Design improvements to the 'Inspire' feed make it easier to like, share and find related content.
- Find our Camera features and other cultural playables in the 'Play' tab.
- Use the new 'Explore' tab to browse our partners' wide corpus of cultural content through topics such as Fashion, Food and Visual arts.
