Pages to delete

I noticed you've done some deletions recently, according to the log, so I thought I'd notify you of some more pages that need that treatment. You can find them in Category:Pages to be deleted (which I just created). Thanks!

User:Freedomillennium's edits

You should probably look at Special:Contributions/Freedomillennium (and Special:DeletedContributions/Freedomillennium). While the user does seem to be friendly, e also seems to have serious communication issues, and doesn't seem to understand how to edit. I don't have the time or inclination to get involved, but it seemed like something staff ought to know about. JesseWeinstein 21:13, 12 June 2009 (UTC)
