

Police, fans and celebrities - What it's like outside the Swift wedding

All eyes are on Madison Square Garden in New York City, where pop superstar Taylor Swift and her American football-player fiancé Travis Kelce have wed, her longtime publicist has confirmed to the BBC. Crowds of fans, onlookers and media gathered outside the venue as the city buzzes with excitement over one of the year's most anticipated celebrity weddings. The BBC's Nada Tawfik reports from the scene, bringing us the atmosphere.

3 July 2026

Taylor Swift

New York City

Weddings

Share Save

EXPLORE MORE

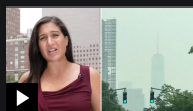

Couples could marry at the pub or in a hot air balloon under new plans

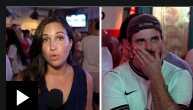

Watch: Torrential rain hits New York and New Jersey triggering flash floods

Timelapse shows World Cup final stadium nearly vanish in smoky haze

'You can taste the smoke': New Yorkers on air quality as fires burn across Canada

Watch: England fans in New York City lament loss to Argentina

Artist sells garbage collected outside Taylor Swift's wedding

Watch: Buckling support beams seen inside New York high-rise

'America's 250th birthday is our 50th anniversary'

Watch: Taylor Swift and Travis Kelce wed in NYC - here's how the day unfolded

Fans gather in New York to get a peek of rumoured Swift 'royal wedding'

Watch: Couple scale Empire State Building, get engaged and are arrested

Is Taylor Swift really getting married at Madison Square Garden?

Two men make $50k to watch the World Cup, with nowhere to hide

Watch: 'New York is alive again' - Knicks parade through Manhattan after NBA win

'The greatest day of my life' - Knicks fans celebrate in San Antonio

Watch: A veil, gowns and umbrellas at a rainy royal wedding

Is there an AI stock market bubble, and is it ready to burst?

Watch: Men seen entering NYC sewer manholes in surveillance footage

Fans rally behind US men's national soccer team as World Cup roster revealed

Residents wade through flood waters and submerged cars in New York City

Giant sinkhole appears on Sunset Boulevard from burst water pipe

A century-old water pipe burst in West Hollywood, triggering a giant sinkhole and flooding nearby streets. Officials said no injuries were reported.

US & Canada

Meet Magnolia, the stolen kitten used in an attempted bank robbery

Magnolia, a black-and-white tuxedo cat, was safely rescued and is currently available for adoption.

US & Canada

Bodycam footage shows airlift of girl stranded by Texas floods

Footage shows a rescuer reaching a family of three stranded by floods that destroyed their house in Uvalde county.

US & Canada

How testosterone testing will work in Hegseth's military

US Defence Secretary Pete Hegseth announced mandatory testosterone screening for military personnel aged 30 and over.

US & Canada

